

PRINCE OF PEACE NEWS

VOLUME LVI ISSUE VI

JUNE 2018 ANNO DOMINI

Called to Serve in the Church:

"Our Churches teach that no one should publicly teach in the Church, or administer the Sacraments, without a rightly ordered call" (Augsburg Confession, Article XIV).

Pastor Janssen, whom I know as, "Dad," has asked me to write this article to better inform the congregation about my pastoral formation at, the best Concordia, Concordia University Chicago, and eventually one of our two highly esteemed LCMS Seminaries. While my schooling is quite vigorous, I am beyond blessed to have this experience and I cannot thank Prince of Peace enough for all of the support you have given me.

The vocation God has called me to pursue is one of the Pastoral Ministry. Contemporary Christian churches no longer require intense Seminary education. Because of this, it might seem strange to many Christians that I have to spend 8 years studying the Bible in its original languages (Hebrew and Koine Greek) and church doctrine before I am considered to receive a call into the ministry. While there isn't enough time to discuss this cultural shift in detail, just know two things: one, being a pastor without attending seminary is primarily an American practice. Two, we follow the example of Martin Luther who not only went to Seminary, but also taught at one. This concern for faithful and consistent teaching predates the Lutheran Church and is a tradition the reformers cherished.

As stated above, the Lutheran Confessions talk about the Church calling men to the pastoral ministry to teach and administer the Sacraments. Before one is called to teach, it is necessary that they have been properly taught themselves. James, the brother of Jesus, writes, " Not many of you should become teachers, my brothers, for you know that we who teach will be judged with greater strictness." It was very important to the Apostolic Fathers and the Early Church Fathers, along with the Church today, that men be trained to the highest caliber when preaching and administering the Sacraments to God's people.

Luther writes in preface to the Small Catechism, "O bishops! What answer will you ever give to Christ for having so shamefully neglected the people and never for a moment fulfilled your office (James 3:1)? May all misfortune run from you! (I do not wish at this place to call down evil on your heads.) You command the Sacrament in one form and insist on your human laws, and yet at the same time you do not care at all whether the people know the Lord's Prayer, The Creed, the Ten Commandments, or any part of God's Word. Woe, woe to you forever!" (See Matthew 23).

To this day and for forever more, it is absolutely necessary for those who are called to be properly trained. The call does not make one exempt from pastoral formation, but rather compels him to actively pursue the proper education, as would a Medical Doctor or an Engineer.

Our Church, The Lutheran Church Missouri - Synod, has been blessed with a rich historic emphasis on education. We have the Concordia System which includes 10 Private Lutheran Universities and 2 Seminaries along with Concordia Publishing House which provide materials for all ages looking to enrich biblical literacy and study. I encourage all to support and use these great resources.

I love the Lutheran Church and cannot express how much my life has been influenced by it. I pray for Prince of Peace Lutheran Church every day and I even proposed to my now fiancée Elizabeth in our beautiful sanctuary. I wish to thank all of you for making me the man I am today. I love you and thank you for supporting me in answering God's call to serve in His Church. (Romans 10:15)

Your Friend in Christ,
Benjamin Janssen

A Letter from Vicar Schultz

25 April 2018

Dear members of Prince of Peace Lutheran Church,

I am happy to announce that I will have been assigned as your vicar for the upcoming year. I humbly accept this assignment and eagerly look forward to joining you all in Martinsville.

I hope to start my vicarage in June. My wife, Magdalena, and I plan to arrive in Martinsville near the end of May. We will be packing up our home in the next weeks before our son, Noah, is born early next month. Once Noah is born and an apartment becomes available, we plan to move. I would like to rent our own moving vehicle as needed and at your recommendation, and receive reimbursement for moving expenses once I arrive to simplify our tax situation. I will be in contact with Pastor Janssen concerning our exact moving date and if we need any help.

Magdalena and I will be joining the Concordia Health Plan through the seminary once Noah is born. Due to Noah's upcoming surgeries to address various congenital abnormalities, Noah will also be signed up for Medicaid. In regards to the insurance through the seminary, that rate for a student with children will be increasing from $604.50 to $626.50 on September 1st of this year.

Magdalena and I were married on May 20, 2017. A Lifelong Michgander and born an authentic "Yoooper," Magdalena grew up in Hillsdale. She graduated from Hillsdale College in 2016 with two B.A. degrees in History and German. After graduation, she worked as an intern at the Old Latin School in Wittenberg, Germany; she now works remotely part-time as a virtual assistant to the managing director. I grew up in northeast Kansas, near Manhattan, in the beautiful Flint Hills. I attended Concordia University, Nebraska, and graduated with a B.A. in History in 2016. We eagerly await the birth of our firstborn in just two weeks. As mentioned above, he will likely need extensive care and multiple surgeries in the first months of his life. We will be spending much of our time at the Ronald McDonald House at Riley Children's Hospital through May as these needs are addressed. I plan to begin my duties at Prince of Peace in June, though Magdalena will spend the majority of her time at Riley until Noah can come home.

I look forward to meeting you all and continuing in my pastoral formation at Prince of Peace. My prayer is that through this year the Lord blesses all our work together as we grow and learn together.

In Christ,
Christian D. Schultz
